- a. All library materials are ultimately considered property of the State of NY and should be returned in the same condition in which they are loaned.

- c. Library materials are considered "overdue" when they are returned after the date indicated on the item.
- d. Any materials returned in less than loaned condition, or missing parts are considered "ruined items" and are subject to the same conditions as lost items. Ruined items include, but are not limited to the following: stained, dirty, smelly, water damaged, chewed, torn, missing pages, covers or accessories, and scratched or broken CDs or DVDs. Normal wear and tear due to the long-term handling of items will be considered by the library staff when enforcing this policy.

- f. If an item is overdue for more than 50 days, the item is considered "lost".
- g. If materials are lost by a patron, the cardholder is responsible and will be charged the cost of the item as listed in the catalogue. Identical replacement items may also be accepted.
- h. 30 days after the final notice is sent, any accounts with unpaid replacement costs may be sent to a collection agency. The library reserves the right to report the offender to the proper law enforcement agency in accordance with section 265 of the NYS Education Law.
